

UC INTERNAL STEPS

Name: sell shoe

1. Login
2. The user requests to put the shoe up for sale.
3. The system provides a form to enter the sales data for the shoe.
4. The user insert the sales data for the shoe.
5. The system calculates a recommended price based on the condition of the shoe.
6. The user confirms the data of the sale of the shoe.
7. The system saves the information of the sale of the shoe.
8. The system adds the shoe to the catalog of shoes for sale.

Extensions:

- 4a. The sales data for the shoe are not correct: The system alerts the user with an error message.
- 6a. The user select the exit option: The system discard the entered information and go back.
- 7a. The DB system does not respond: The system notifies the user and terminates the use case.